

HHHello HHHashers!

By now you should be planning your trip to the happiest place on Earth - despite what Mickey Mouse claims - for the Danish Nash Hash. Talking of Mickey Mouse the mismanagement is busy making sure everything is ready for you when you get here. We have a classic Viking Wankers weekend planned for you and are looking forward to celebrating the 5th Danish Nash Hash

Afore the revels

Pre-Lube

Stockholm Hash will be setting a pre-lube just over the water in Sweden on the afternoon of the 7th July. One short ferry ride and you can tick off another country on your "Places I have Hashed" list.

Follow the link to Stockholm H3 for instructions, registration closes on the 1st May so put your beer down for 5 minutes and go an sign up now.

Accommodation after

We have booked a block of rooms at the venue for the night of the 7th July for hashers attending the pre-lube. If you want a bed it will cost you Kr250;- for the night including breakfast payable to the venue on arrival. To book, send an email to rego@nashhash.dk with the subject "Yes I need somewhere to sleep on the 7th July" giving the Hash and Nerd names for every person who will need a bed. You have until the end of May to make your mind up.

A Motley Place

Talking of the venue we will have the whole place to ourselves for the weekend so we won't be disturbed.

Bedding and towels are included in your registration so you don't need to bring anything apart from your hash gear and your drinking boots, ear plugs, drinking vessel, costume for the party etc.

Party on Nave!

What else could we have as a party theme but Shakespeare? So shake out your doublet and hose, ruffle up your ruff and send your cape to the cleaners. Be the hero, the villain, the star cross'ed lover, the 3rd spear carrier or get creative and come as a pound of flesh.

William Shakespeare walks into a pub. The barman shouts "Oi you can't come in here. You're Bard!"

Other Local(ish) Hashing

Copenhagen Viking Wankers will be running on the Mondays before and after the Nash Hash. The run will be somewhere near to Copenhagen probably from an S-Tog station. See www.ch3.dk for details nearer the date.

If you prefer to go further afield take the plane or the ferry up to Oslo. OH3 also run on Monday nights, more info will be on www.oh3.no nearer the date.

Aarhus H3 run on Tuesdays so stay an extra day and relax on the train to get there. It's the other side of Denmark but it only takes a couple of hours (www.ah3.dk).

Questions! Questions!

I can't make it! Can I sell my rego?

As long as there is someone willing to buy it off you, go ahead. If you need to find someone then drop us a line rego@nashhash.dk and we'll put you in contact with anyone that we know is looking.

Once you've sold the rego we ask that both you and purchaser email us to let us know that the deal has been done and you're sorted.

Note: we can no longer guarantee the T shirt size for the buyer, but we will do our best.

Can I book extra nights at the venue?

If you are coming for the pre-lube in Helsingborg then it's probably the best option. We have a block of rooms booked at Kr250;- per person including breakfast. To book one send an email to rego@nashhash.dk with the subject of "Yes I need somewhere to sleep on the 7th July" and give your Hash and Nerd names and those of anyone else who needs a bed. You will need to get to the venue and check in during the day before the pre-lube and you will need to pay direct to them before you will get a bed.

Should I learn Danish before I come?

No. The Danes don't bother pronouncing their language properly no what chance do you have?

Isn't Denmark the capital of Sweden?

No. However much the Danes would like it to be

What currency do you they use in Denmark?

The Danes were smart enough to stay out of the Euro and still have their own currency, the Danish Kroner. Rates vary but at the time of writing you should get between 6.8 kroner for per US$, 7.5 per € or 9.8 per GB£

For the ~~Americans~~ geographically challenged, if you are planning on going to the pre-lube in Helsingborg be aware that it is in Sweden which is a whole different country. They have their own language, their own flag and they do things differently there. They don't use the Euro either and their currency is also called the Kroner except it's not the same Kroner as in Denmark.

Luckily most places in both countries will take credit cards provided you have chip and pin.

Where can I stay if I want to hang around in Copenhagen?

There are plenty of hotels and hostels in Copenhagen at prices for most pockets. 10 minutes on line will give you plenty of choice. Remember to check on Google Maps (other mapping services are available) exactly where the hotel is before you book. Somewhere near the Tivoli will put you right in the middle of town.

Do I need any vaccinations?

Not for Denmark. You might want to ask your doctor about Sweden if you are going to the pre-lube

Is the water safe to drink?

Certainly not! Stick to beer

Staying in Copenhagen

There is a wide range of hotels for all pockets, you probably want to stay near to the main station so you can get around easily. A few of the cheaper places near there are:

Copenhagen Plaza, Bernstorffsgade 4, 1577 København V, Denmark

Hotel Astoria, Banegårdspladsen 4, 1570 København, Denmark

City Hotel Nebo, Istedgade 6, 1650 København, Denmark

First Hotel Excelsior, Colbjørnsensgade 6, 1652 København, Denmark

The mismanagement takes no responsibility for the quality of any of the above because 10 minutes with Google will find you a dozen other just as good/bad

Parting is such sweet sorrow

This will be the last newsletter, we don't have anything else to tell you. If we think of anything we'll post it on the webshite and the Facebook event.
